ADVERTISING AND MARKETING

ADVERTISING AND MARKETING POLICY

1.1.1. DEFINITION

The term "Advertising" includes all written or oral statements or communications made by or on behalf of a Broker or Salesperson which induces or attempts to induce a member of the public to use the services of the licensed real estate agent or a service provider. Advertising includes, but is not limited to, publications, radio and television broadcasts, all electronic media including email messages, text messages, social-networking websites and the Internet, business stationary, business cards, signs and billboards.

1.1.2. EXCLUSIONS

Advertising does not include: (i) communication from a Broker or Salesperson to a member of the public after the member of the public agrees to receive the information or service of the Broker or Salesperson, or (ii) listings or other real estate information available to the public on a licensee's website, extranet or similar site that is behind a firewall or similar filtering software which requires a password or registration to access that information.

1.1.3. PROHIBITIONS

Sales Associate is prohibited from the following:

- (a) Advertising in a way that is materially inaccurate or misrepresents the property, terms, values, services, or policies;
- (b) Advertising a property subject to an exclusive listing agreement without the permission of the listing Broker and without disclosing the name of the listing Broker unless the listing Broker has expressly agreed to waive disclosure;
- (c) Failing to remove an advertisement about a listed property within a reasonable time after closing or termination of a listing agreement, unless the status is included in the advertisement;
- (d) Identifying the Salesperson as a Broker in advertising;
- (e) Advertising a property in a manner that creates a reasonable likelihood of confusion regarding the permitted use of the property; or
- (f) Advertising in a way that indicates a limitation or preference based on race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, national origin, or sexual orientation.
