- Be the Voice of the members.
- Advance professionalism through the enforcement of the NAR Code of Ethics.
- Provide relevant industry information and quality educational events to the membership.
- Be an active participant in promoting and supporting property rights in the state of Texas, and in local political issues involving real estate and homeownership.
- Become a recognized leader within the Association through your promotion of the association values, culture, and services!

Responsibilities:

- Attendance at the Annual Board of Directors Leadership Training & Monthly BOD meetings.
- Participation in Association activities, education, and events throughout the year.
- Commitment to invest in TREPAC
- Serve as an ambassador of the Association through promotion of the WCREALTORS culture, tools, services to the membership.
- Dedication to advancing the professionalism of the REALTOR Community.

If you are prepared to commit your time, talents and passion to make a difference by being part of WCREALTORS' leadership team, today is the day to apply for one of the Director positions. Submit your application for WCREALTORS' 2019 - 2021 Board of Directors.

Please submit the completed Board of Directors commitment form, an updated personal biography, and headshot via email to wcrealtors@wcrealtors.org no later than September 7, 2018.
